

Gauri Hardatt

UI/UX Designer

For my Portfolio, Link: gaurihardatt.com

A passionate and creative individual with a deep love for art since childhood, I am fascinated by how simple scribbles can evolve into meaningful creations. As a former architect and a new-bee UX designer, I bring a mature and sensible approach to my work, always seeking to learn and grow. My journey as a self-taught UX designer drives me to explore new chapters in design, expand my skill set, and contribute to user-centered solutions. I am eager to find opportunities that will help elevate my expertise and foster my growth in the field.
